

Clydesdales, Frito Pie & Strawberries

(How's that for a bizarre trifecta?)

Join us for a day-long, back-to-nature jaunt across Oklahoma

Thursday, May 9, 2019

7:30 a.m. Leave Tulsa Historical Society & Museum, 2445 S. Peoria
(Please arrive 15 minutes before departure time)

116 Farmstead & Market in Luther, a farm to table restaurant and farmer's market providing locally sourced beef and poultry, cheeses, eggs, fruits and vegetables, grains, and a multitude of other farm to market products. We'll enjoy a cup of coffee and a muffin or cinnamon roll from an assortment of baked goods. Merchants along the 1-block Main Street are opening their shops especially for us.

Express Clydesdale Ranch in Yukon. We'll see the beautiful huge black and white Clydesdales and Percheron horses from Canada in their historical Clydesdale barn (originally built in 1936 by H.I Grimes, an Oklahoma City oilman and farmer and restored especially for the Clydesdales by Amish Carpenters in 1998).

Catered lunch in the barn at the Express Clydesdale Ranch from Green Chili Kitchen in Yukon, featuring a Frito pie bar with all the fixings, plus dessert and water or tea.

Growing Paynes Farm, owned by Kelly Payne, who was our wonderful guide at the Oklahoma Stockyards last October and her sister, Rita. Growing Paynes offers a wide variety of seasonal produce. Produce is available pre-picked or u-pick. We will pick strawberries. The first pound is included in your package; anything over one pound will be on your own. These are under cover in a "hoop house" so we don't have to worry about the weather.
